7:00 welcome and introduction

7:05 approval of minutes:

- THRPD has assigned Terri O'Brien to the park. Should read: Terri O'Brien represents THRPD at the Schiffler Park meetings.
- Type 2: If less than 30,000 than a hearing should be required. Should read: Type 2 if more than 30,000 square feet a hearing should be required.

7:10 Ed House: head librarian, thanks NAC for $500 donation.

Ed will buy $663 worth of books for our $500 donation. Because of the discount the library receives.

The annual book budget was cut by 35% to $165,000. There was also a cutback in magazine subscriptions

The library is now open 60 hours a week instead of 71.

Three position are left unfilled, no new equipment unless donated, no money for travel expenses.

Levy in 2004 to help fund library (sounds like they need it)

2336 people come through the doors each day. 828,000 per year!

416 research questions answered each day. 27,343 in children's program this year. 32,000 items added to the inventory each year. 20,000 items taken out of inventory each year because they are either out dated or worn out.

Circulation between July 1st and June 30th was 1,794,863 items, about 5,000 per day!

Beaverton Residents use 2/3 of the services; the remaining 1/3 serves other county residents.
